

Centre for Facilitation Privacy Statement

- When you make contact with us we will store the contact details you have supplied (name/email/phone) so that we are able to send you the information you have requested and to supply facilitation and consultancy services to you.
- We do not seek to collect any personal sensitive data beyond the data that we need so that we can provide you with the information and services that you would expect.
- We will retain your information for a reasonable period of time. This means that if we send you information and hear nothing, we may send a further follow up to check if you require any further information. If we do not hear anything further from you at this point we will assume that you are no longer interested in our services.
- We do not process information we have stored from enquires and from our clients.
- We do not share or sell this information with any other organisations.
- We will not include your information in any direct marketing campaigns.
- If you would like any further information about the data that we hold on you then please do get in contact.
